

Marissa Mackie

Marissa is the President-Elect of the Law Society of South Australia. In her spare time, she is a Principal at Norman Waterhouse Lawyers specialising in Commercial and Taxation, a sessional member of the South Australian Civil and Administrative Tribunal, President of the Women Lawyers Association of South Australia and a GDLP Facilitator for the University of Adelaide/Law Society GDLP Program in Banking & Finance Law, Consumer Law and Corporate & Commercial Practice.

Marissa was admitted to practice in 2009, following completion of a Bachelor of Commerce and Bachelor of Laws and Legal Practice. She has also completed a Master of Laws specialising in Corporate, Commercial and Taxation law.

Marissa has been an active member of the Law Society and is a member of the Women Lawyers Committee, Commercial Law Committee, Professional Standards Scheme Committee and Audit and Risk Management Committee. In 2018 she was appointed to Council before becoming a member of the Executive in 2022.