

Michael Tilley

Michael joined the Independent Bar in 2019. He practices primarily in civil and commercial litigation.

His main areas of focus are: injury claims - public and products liability, CTP, medical negligence and worker's compensations; insurance; professional liability; building and construction disputes; general commercial claims.