

Philippa Ewens

Philippa was called to the Independent Bar in 2022, as a member Nexus Chambers. She accepts briefs in a range of areas including public law, civil and commercial law. She has relevant expertise in personal injury (including CTP claims), professional negligence and workers compensation.

Preceding her joining the Bar, Philippa practised exclusively as counsel in the Crown Counsel Section of the Crown Solicitor's Office. Earlier in her career, Philippa served as associate to the Honourable Justice Doyle of the Supreme Court, a commercial litigation solicitor in private practice and subsequently a solicitor in the Public Law Section of the Crown.
