

Dr Ross J Keenan_MB.ChB. (dist) FRANZCR_Neuroradiologist

Dr Ross Keenan is a well-regarded ANZ Neuroradiologist highly experienced in Adult, Paediatric, Neuro-PET neuroimaging including advanced translational and research imaging.

Dr Keenan graduated University of Otago NZ and undertook Radiology training in the Auckland Hospital network. He completed subspeciality Fellowships in Paediatric and Neuroimaging eventually relocating to Adelaide for between 1992 – 2003, holding Consultant positions at the Adelaide Women’s and Children Hospital, and Flinders Medical Centre whilst also working in private practise.

Dr Keenan is currently Lead Neuroradiologist at Christchurch Hospital and a Senior Consultant and Director of Research within the RHCNZ imaging network, New Zealand’s largest private radiology provider.

Dr Keenan has had a commitment to undergraduate and post-graduate ANZ teaching and long standing involvement in the RANZCR Radiology Training programme. He is an extensively-published with a proven track record in imaging research based at the NZ Brain Research Institute (NZBRI).

Dr Keenan has some 25 year’s experience in the provision of Australian Expert Medicolegal reports and Insurance assessments.

30.12.2024