

Roberto Celemente

Roberto is a co-founder and the Managing Partner of C+F Lawyers. Admitted to practice in 1996, he has built extensive experience in personal injury litigation, with a focus on motor vehicle accidents, public liability, and medical negligence. He has acted for both claimants and insurers and now concentrates on complex and catastrophic injury claims. Roberto holds degrees in Law and Commerce and has a strong interest in efficient legal practice, including the strategic use of modern legal technology.